

HEALTHY THINKING

Our thoughts have a profound impact on our attitude, emotions and even health. This two-hour session helps to identify negative and unhelpful thinking habits, common thinking traps and provides practical strategies for developing healthy thinking habits with greater self awareness.

A must for building more cohesive and cooperative teams and for improving staff communication skills.

Cost: $400 per session (limit 15 staff members per session)